

name

date

Card survey: “To me, living in a democracy means ...“

We have grouped the cards with your answers to the question “What does democracy mean to you?” in class.

Let's compare your clusters with the answers people gave in response to a survey of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP).

Add the ideas to your clusters. If necessary, find new headings.

Nancy Anderson Gibson

Freedom and a country that is run by the people not dictators.

3 October 5, 2013 at 4:28am

Giorgi Todua

when minority enjoys the rights that majority has

3 October 5, 2013 at 5:04 am

Mrdc Bergoglio

A perfect system of government but only for mature, informed and pro-active citizens

17 October 5, 2013 at 4:23 am

Susie Graham-Barnes

Freedom of expression, equal rights and justice, government of the people, by the people, for the people

15 October 5, 2013 at 4:33am

Rehmat Ebrahim

Social justice for all citizens

1 October 5, 2013 at 10:38 am

Himani Khera

Free education

1 October 5, 2013 at 9:30 am

Sambinho Willy Nilly

Freedom to speak and to vote!

October 5, 2013 at 5:36 am